

AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

We support leading investors, lessors, financiers and operators in respect of their international financing and leasing operations.

As the aircraft leasing market continues to grow globally, financing and structuring solutions are also changing, driven by investor demand as well as regulatory and tax developments.

Lessors are finding the opportunity to identify new sources of funding with an increasing prevalence of fund and securitisation platforms tailored to investor requirements.

This environment requires a comprehensive administration solution that offers:

- A streamlined technical solution with vertically integrated data and reporting from lease to investor
- A solutions orientated, experienced administration team, ensuring time sensitive transaction closing and reporting.

Through our 33 offices and desks, we provide our clients with vertically integrated services from investor to asset from stand-alone lease SPCs to multi-layered fund and securitisation structures.
