ALTER DOMUS NAMES MARK GEBAUER AS NEW COUNTRY EXECUTIVE FOR GERMANY

Alter Domus, a fully integrated Fund and Corporate services provider, today announces that Mark Gebauer has been appointed Country Executive for Germany. Mark will be responsible for Alter Domus' activities in Germany and report directly to the Chief Commercial Officer, Head of Strategy and EMEA, George Rologis.

Mark has more than 18 years of experience within the Big 4 accounting firms. Prior to joining Alter Domus, he acted as Associate Partner at Ernst and Young, led their real estate tax team in the region and headed the tax accounting practice at Ernst and Young in Dusseldorf. Mark began his professional career in 2001 as a lawyer in the tax department of Arthur Andersen in Düsseldorf, which merged with Ernst and Young in 2002. Between 2007 and 2009, he was exclusively admitted to mergers & acquisitions in Ernst and Young's transaction tax team. In the subsequent years, he expanded his footprint in the real estate market and supported his real estate clients (regulated and non-regulated) on structuring matters and transactions, but also in compliance and (tax) accounting issues in German GAAP (HGB), IFRS and US-GAAP.

Mark said, "I am very happy to join Alter Domus and am looking forward to expanding the firm's footprint in Germany. It is an exciting opportunity to introduce more of the variety of Alter Domus' services into the German Market and I am sure, that together with the great and growing German team we will be able to provide an excellent and increasing range of services to our clients."

Aidan Connolly, Chief Executive Officer, said "Mark comes to us after spending many years at Ernst & Young, and his knowledge of the German financial industry will be a huge asset to us as we seek to expand our German portfolio. Germany represents a massive opportunity for Alter Domus, and with Mark joining our operations there, I am confident that we shall soon see some impressive results from him and his team in Dusseldorf."
