ALTER DOMUS NAMES FREDERIC BERTHIER AS NEW COUNTRY EXECUTIVE FOR FRANCE

Alter Domus, a fully integrated Fund and Corporate services provider, today announces that Frédéric Berthier has been appointed Country Executive for France. Frédéric will be responsible for Alter Domus' activities in France and report directly to the Chief Commercial Officer, Head of Strategy and EMEA, George Rologis.

Frédéric has over 20 years of international experience working with global Financial Services organisations, and he joins Alter Domus from Chorus Capital, a specialist credit manager based in London, where he was Chief Finance and Operating Officer, as well as Compliance Officer (FCA). Prior to this he was managing partner at Fairsky Consulting, a boutique advisory firm providing services to Fund Managers and Investors covering all non-trading activities and operational due diligence. Frédéric has also been Chief Finance and Operating Officer at ESO Capital, European Operations Manager at Carval Investors / Cargill Value Investment, and a Financial Controller at Lehman Brothers.

Frédéric said, "Having worked in the Fund Management industry over the last two decades I have dealt firsthand with the operational challenges that managers have to face. I believe that AlterDomus is uniquely positioned to propose a high-quality service and solutions to its customers and support them in optimising their operations, and I am truly excited to join the firm to lead its efforts in France."

Aidan Connolly, Chief Executive Officer, said "Frederic brings a wealth of experience to a key market for us. His many years of fund administration will prove invaluable as we continue our upward growth strategy. France is an important market for us and a stronghold for private equity investment. With Frederic at the helm, I am confident that we can open a new chapter of success in France."
