ALTER DOMUS NAMES THERESE WIJNEN AS NEW COUNTRY EXECUTIVE FOR THE NETHERLANDS

Alter Domus, a fully integrated Fund and Corporate services provider, today announces that Therese Wijnen has been appointed Country Executive for the Netherlands. Therese will be responsible for Alter Domus' activities in the Netherlands, and report directly to the Chief Commercial Officer, Head of Strategy and EMEA, George Rologis.

Prior to joining Alter Domus, Therese worked for TMF Group, initially as Global Managing Director of Structured Finance Services, where she developed this business from scratch and grew it into a global corporate service provider for SPVs. Following this, she became Senior Legal Counsel, then ultimately Global Head of Directorship Services. In her last role at TMF, Therese was responsible for risk mitigation of directorships and optimising business opportunities, implementing a global strategy for directorship services to client entities.

Therese said, "I am really pleased to have joined Alter Domus - a highly qualified and professional compliance and administrative service provider with an in-depth knowledge of its corporate, private equity and real estate clients, where its unique relationship management is a strong driver of its growth. The highly motivated team in the Netherlands gives me a lot of energy and trust in a successful future."

Aidan Connolly, Chief Executive Officer, said "Therese joins us with a wealth of experience and an outstanding track record in providing first-class service to clients. The Netherlands is one of our largest jurisdictions. I have high expectations for our office in Amsterdam, and I am confident that Therese is a tremendous addition to our team. I'm looking forward to seeing the results she will produce."
