ALTER DOMUS OPENS NEW OFFICE IN JAPAN - SCOTT REYNOLDS NAMED COUNTRY EXECUTIVE

Alter Domus, a fully integrated Fund and Corporate services provider, today announces that it has opened a new office in Tokyo, Japan. Following Alter Domus's practice of establishing offices in those jurisdictions where our clients need us the most, the Japan office will serve our clients in Japan, the Asia-Pacific region and beyond.

The Japan team will work closely with our long-established Alter Domus Hong Kong, China, Australia and Singapore offices to expand and consolidate our reach in the APAC region.

To oversee this important new expansion, Alter Domus is pleased to announce that Scott Reynolds will become the Group's Country Executive for Japan from 1st October 2019. He will be responsible for Alter Domus' activities in Japan and report directly to the Regional Executive Asia Pacific, Alexander Traub.

Scott brings with him more than 25 years accounting and finance experience across diverse industries and several countries, including Japan, the UK and Australia. He has been living and working in Japan for 17 of the past 20 years and over this period has held senior roles with Goldman Sachs Realty Japan Ltd, Deutsche Asset Management (Aust), Allico Real Estate Asset Management Japan, and most recently with Deloitte Tohmatsu LLC., where he and his team supported CFOs of major global companies to transform their finance functions.

Scott has almost 15 years' experience in the asset management and fund space including eight years in a senior position with a Japanese domestic accounting and administrative outsource provider.

He holds a Bachelor of Business from Griffith University, Queensland, Australia and is a Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA). He is also a Project Management Professional (PMP).

Scott said "I am delighted to be joining the Alter Domus team of global professionals and I look forward to leveraging our strong client relationships and closely aligned operational network to deliver first-class services to our clients here in Japan. We have bold growth plans and I am excited to be in this position to uniquely contribute to the success of our business and that of our clients."

Aidan Connolly, Chief Executive Officer, said "With his deep knowledge of the Japanese market and strong track record, Scott will be a great addition to the Asia-Pacific leadership team. This key appointment demonstrates our strong focus on continuing to invest for growth in the region. We are very confident that his appointment will continue to drive our business forward in Asia Pacific, a region that is an important part of Alter Domus' global network.
